

Afternoon STEAM at METU

Science

Technology

Engineering

Art

Mathematics

Budapest Metropolitan University is proud to host the first visiting professors through the Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility program from Jerusalem College of Technology, Israel and Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University, South Africa. We kindly invite all interested students and staff to our first open lectures on STEAM Education on Tuesday, 6 December 2016, 2 – 5 p.m.

METU Art Campus, 1077 Budapest, Rózsa utca 4-6

Room A009

PRESENTATIONS

Glimpses at Mathematics in Jewish Art

Presented by: Prof. Sara Hershkovitz and Dr Dana-Picard Thierry from the Jerusalem Institute of Technology

Exploring the incorporation of Afri-cultural designs into virtual manipulatives

Presented by: Dr. Werner Anton Olivier and Dr. Philip Godfrey Collett from Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University

Using Technology to Connect Arts, Mathematics and Science

Presented by Dr. Zsolt Lavicza from Johannes Kepler and Cambridge University